LEAGUE SERIES OF BASEBALL.

Unknowns Defeat the Stars in the Opening Game on Saturday.

PARTIAL EMPIRING CAUSES ROW

Attendance Not as Large as Expected. Both Clubs Play Fair Ball—Changes Under '95 Rules—Captain Ganzel is a Great Ball Tossing—New Members

HE opening game of the league baseball series was played Saturday afternoon between the Star and Unknown clubs.

While the attendance was not as large as might have been expected, yet a good crowd was present. The absence of music tended to make the occasion less interesting than last season.

The Stars appeared in new and natty uniforms of brown shirts and stockings, with white pants and caps, a large white star adorning the center of the shirt. The club is captained by J. Ganzel, an experienced ball player from the States. He fully demonstrated his ability to play the game Saturday, showing as well extraordinary good management of team work. Ganzel worked hard during the game, and with several others had no errors charged against him.

The Unknown club is made up mostly of last season's Hawaiis, James Thompson playing second and managing the team. They have adopted the old uniform of the Hawaiis, with the change of the letter U in black on white shirts. Woods was in the box for the Unknowns. Chas. Atwood, the regular catcher, having received an injury by being hit in the eye while umpiring the junior game during Saturday morning, Tom Pryce was substituted. Chris Willis held down his old position at first and played an exceptionally good game throughout. Woods was in fine form and pitched strong ball, holding the Stars down to goose eggs until the third inning.

Owing to the non-arrival of the new battery for the Stars, Lionel Hart and Harry Wilder played pitcher and catcher. Considering short practice Hart done well in the box. Harry Wilder caught well and fully sustained his previous good record.

Following was the make-up of the teams with positions:

UNKNOWN.	POSITIONS.	STAR.
T. Pryce.....	Harry Wilder
George Woods.....	Lionel Hart
Chris Willis.....	John Ganzel
J. A. Thompson.....	J. O. Carter, Jr.
Kalani.....	Sam Woods
A. Miranda.....	W. Wilder
A. Duncan.....	George Angus
L. Miranda.....	D. McNichol
Substitutes—C. Brewster, K. Peter, Oliver Carter.

The first game of the series is generally a slow one and made up of costly errors. In this respect Saturday's game was no exception; the contest being a combination of errors, requiring 2 hours and 10 minutes to complete it.

Under '95 rules the pitcher's box is composed of a rubber plate 6 by 24 inches, distant 60½ feet—ten feet farther than last year. Once his foot is placed upon the rubber, the pitcher cannot throw to bases. A foul tip caught counts a strike; fly ball to any point in the infield is out whether caught or missed. This is thought to be for the purpose of preventing forced base running.

The increased distance of the pitcher makes it more easy for batters to hit the ball, giving more fielding and preventing in a degree so much effective battery work.

The game commenced promptly at 3:30 with Harry Whitney as plate and Henry Kaia as base umpires. In the absence of official scorer Judge Antone Perry, C. S. Bradford acted in that capacity.

Unknowns won the choice and took the field. Under the steady work of Woods the Stars went out in succession in the first inning, with a like result in the second. Miranda scored for the Unknowns in the first. Hart was found early in the game and pounded in every direction, allowing the Unknowns to pile up four runs in the second.

In the first half of the third Willie Wilder and George Angus made first runs for the Stars, making the score five to two in favor of the Unknowns, and giving the Stars renewed encouragement.

The Stars failed to score in the fourth through a close and somewhat doubtful decision by Kaia against Sam Woods at second. The umpire's decision was questioned by Ganzel and hissed by the grandstand. A hot exchange of words followed and, after repeated cries from the audience of "play ball," the game proceeded. In the last half Sam Woods erred in throwing to first instead of shutting pitcher Woods out home, giving the Unknowns another tally.

Willie Wilder, Chan Wilder and Lionel Hart scored for the Stars in the first half of the fifth; Unknowns going out in successive order.

Both clubs failed to score in the sixth and seventh innings. In the beginning of the eighth Ganzel hit to the fence over center for three bases and came home on a passed ball by Kalani, tying the score. The Unknowns caught a goose egg. This was about the only time throughout the game any interest was manifested.

The Stars failed to count in the ninth, though they had players on both second and third bases. A passed ball by Carter gave Pryce second; Miranda out on fly to Ganzel, advancing Pryce to third. Ganzel made beautiful running play but had to leave first base unprotected. Duncan hit safe for one base, allowing Pryce to score, Unknowns winning the game by a score of 7 to 6.

ADOLPH BEHRENS, New Catcher for the Stars. He will arrive Thursday and play in next Saturday's game.

In the first part of the seventh inning umpire Kaia made what appeared to be a very rank decision in declaring Hart out at second. For this he was hooted and hissed on all sides. An appeal was made to Harry Whitney who, after hearing both sides, overruled Kaia's decision and gave Hart his base. Captain Thompson explained that under a certain section of the '95 rules the play made the runner out, and Whitney so declared. At this point umpire Kaia waved his hat and clapped his hands shouting, "Hurrah for our side," plainly demonstrating his sympathy with the Unknowns. This so enraged several of the Stars that the game came near breaking up in a row. But for timely interference, one of the Star players would have slugged Kaia. While it was more than evident Kaia showed prejudice and favored the Unknowns in some of his decisions, he endeavored to smooth these over by rendering equally as partial ones in favor of the Stars during the remainder of the play. After the game Kaia was spoken to rather plainly by one of the Star players regarding his actions as umpire.

It is to be greatly regretted that any friction occurred, especially during the first game. The claim is made that some of Kaia's decisions were based on words spoken in Hawaiian by one of the Unknown players.

The second game of the series will be played next Saturday between the Stars and Kamehamehas.

Notes.

Kamehamehas and Stars next.

Behrens is said to be a heavy batter.

Chris Willis continues to play good ball at first.

Ganzel is an excellent first baseman and captain.

The Star fielders had lots of work to do Saturday.

Bunting the ball is counted an out under '95 rules.

A. and L. Miranda did good work for the Unknowns.

Harry Wilder's catching received favorable comment.

Woods has developed considerable speed since last season.

McNichol promises to play the game his life next Saturday.

Only capable and impartial persons should be selected for umpires.

Tom Pryce is one of the most active and enthusiastic players in the league.

The association should make arrangements for music during the games.

Look out for the Stars in next Saturday's game with the Kamehamehas.

Lionel Hart, considering the little practice he has had, pitched a strong game for the Stars.
